D. ACTIVITY RISK CLASSIFICATION. INHERENT RISKS AND NATURE OF THE HORSE WARNING- Horseback riding is classified as a RUGGED ADVENTURE RECREATIONAL SPORT ACTIVITY. There are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in such activity despite all safety precautions. According to NEISS (National Electronic Injury Surveillance Systems of United States Consumer Products) horse activities rank approximately 64th among the activities of people relative to injuries that result in a stay at U.S. hospitals. Related injuries can be severe requiring more hospital days and resulting in more lasting residual effects than injuries in other activities. NO HORSE IS A COMPLETELY SAFE HORSE. Horses are 5 to 15 times larger, 20 to 30 times more powerful and 3 to 4 times faster than a human is. If a rider falls from a horse to the ground it will generally be at a distance of from 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 feet and the impact may result in injury or death to the rider. Horseback riding is the only sport where one much smaller, weaker predator animal, the human, tries to control and become one with movement with another much larger, stronger prey animal, the horse, with each having a limited understanding of the other. If a horse is frightened or provoked it may divert from its training and act according to its natural survival instincts which may include but are not limited to: stopping short; changing directions or speed at will; shifting its weight from side to side, bucking, rearing, biting, kicking or running from perceived danger.

Such helmets are available at THIS STABLE; however, THIS STABLE reco nmends the PARTICIPANT purchase their own helmet to receive the benefit of a custom fit. Wearing such h adgear while mounting, riding, dismounting, and being around horses may prevent death or reduce the severity o head injuries resulting from a fall or other incident involving a horse. THIS STABLE abides by the NARHA Helmet l tandards and requires children under the age of 14 to wear an ASTM approved EQUESTRIAN helmet when mounted . all times.
